Gentle Landing Midwifery

For the past 2 years, Licensed Midwives Erin Ryan and Katherine Bramhall have been attending home births together. With their similar philosophies and different life experiences, they provide amazing midwifery care to moms and babies.

Erin's education consists of academic studies and hands-on training at settings including home, birth centers, and hospitals. She has been a primary midwife since 1998. Erin has 3 beautiful sons who were born at home.

Katherine is a graduate of Birthwise Midwifery School. She attends births both at home and in birth clinics worldwide. For 22 years she worked as a doula as well as a holistic health and Polarity Practitioner. She has 2 grown daughters and is looking forward to the “next generation” of children in her family.
